- 2.4 Where the Company releases an executive director of the Company for non-executive roles, the Committee minutes will include a statement as to the time commitment associated with such appointments, and whether the director should retain any earnings in relation to the role, and if so, what the remuneration is. This shall also be recorded in the directors' remuneration report.
- 2.5 Review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy to support strategy and promote long term sustainable success and ensure that it is aligned with the Company's purpose and values, and the successful delivery of the company's long-term strategy.

- 2.8 Establish a formal policy for post employment shareholding requirements for Executive Directors encompassing both vested and unvested shares.
- 2.9 Review and note annually the remuneration trends across the Company, the Group, and comparable companies to ensure that remuneration is competitive, fair and appropriate. - 2.11 Agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses.
- 2.12 Delegate any of its responsibilities to subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.

The remuneration policy shall allow the Company to attract, retain and motivate executive management to drive the long-term success of the Company and deliver sustainable value to shareholders.

- 2.15 Review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors and, taking into account the recommendation of the CEO, the individual awards for the Company Secretary and members of the ALT and the performance targets to be used.
- 2.16 Ensure that remuneration schemes promote long-term shareholdings by executive directors that support alignment with long-term sustainable shareholder interests.
- 2.17 Ensure that remuneration schemes and policies enable the Committee to use discretion to override formulaic outturns, to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards under appropriate circumstances, and exercise independent judgement and discretion when authorising remuneration outcomes, taking into account of Company and individual performance, and wider circumstances.
